

A new scramble for Africa?

VIRTUAL STUDENT FEDERAL SERVICE

Project Title	A new scramble for Africa?
Project Summary	Identify a rising Africa's place in the international order, and analyze the threats and opportunities for both the African people and the United States.
Country	Germany
Country/Region of Focus	Africa

Project Description

Africa will be the home to a quarter of the world's population by 2050, and several African countries are among the world's fastest growing economies. This has triggered a renewed interest in Africa, which could attract welcome investment but also risks starting a new "scramble for Africa." As interest in Africa grows, which countries are focusing the most on Africa, what are their objectives, what are the likely affects on the continent, and what are the opportunities and threats for the U.S. Government?

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)

Analytical writing

Cultural diplomacy

Data analysis

Data visualization

Economic analysis

GIS expertise

Infographic design

Political Analysis

Research

Additional Information

This project is for the U.S. Africa Command, J-5 (Strategy, Engagement, Programs) Directorate, Stuttgart, Germany.

Language Requirements

None